

Celine Spinka

Celine grew up training in her hometown of Redding, California. She is a graduate from Butler University with a major in Dance Pedagogy and a minor in Strategic Communications. She spent summers training at The Jillana School, Long Beach Ballet, Ballet West, Ballet Met, Alonzo King LINES Ballet, and River North Dance Chicago. In 2014, she traveled abroad with Butler Ballet to perform in Poland, Slovakia and the Czech Republic. She has been fortunate to work with teachers and choreographers such as Patrick Hinson, Derek Reid, Susan McGuire, Frank Chavez, Lesley Telford, Mike Gosney, Ronn Stewart and David Maurice among others. Since moving to Chicago in 2016, she has danced with Elements Contemporary Ballet and Cocodaco Dance Project. Celine currently dances and is PR Director for Moonwater Dance Project.