

Kaylah King is a dancer, choreographer and teaching artist based in Chicago, IL. She received her BFA in Dance from Sam Houston State University in May 2022. She began training in Houston, TX under the direction of Sherese Campbell. Alexander has showcased original choreography in the SHSU undergraduate showcase "Dances @ 8" as well as presented her film "ARE YOU OKAY" in DanceWorks Chicago's DanceChance. Furthermore, her piece "Les Funérailles Du Jazz" was featured at the Barnstorm Dance Festival in May 2022. She has had the honor to learn and work with a variety of acclaimed dance artists; Some of these notable choreographers include Joshua Manculich, Francisco Graciano, Shonna Hickman-Matlock, Kevin Ward and Alexis Diggs, She was a member of Dayton Contemporary Dance Company's Second Company for the 2022-2023 season. Kaylah is currently in her first season with Red Clay Dance Company.